

From: Tim Smith
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 1/23/02 2:55pm
Subject: Microsoft Settlement

I believe that the proposed settlement terms with Microsoft do nothing to limit their abuse of the marketplace, and may actually enhance their market position as a monopoly in the computer operating systems and Internet/productivity applications market. My feelings are a result of industry experience as an administrator of Macintosh and Solaris SPARC servers and workstations in primarily Windows environments. I would be happy to expand on my feelings and findings at your convenience.

Tim Smith,
Systems Administrator,
KKLH-FM kklh.com,
Springfield, Missouri

#30 TLS